ENGLISH CATHOLIC HISTORY ASSOCIATION

VISIT TO ST ETHELDREDA'S AND MARTYRS WALK

SUNDAY 24 JUNE 2018

Programme

11am Sung Latin Mass at St Etheldreda's Church (14 Ely Place, London EC1N 6RY). Gather at the back of the Church after Mass for an informal tour of the Church. St Etheldreda's is one of the oldest Catholic churches in Britain and has beautiful stained glass and statues of the martyrs around its walls.

1-2pm Please bring your own lunch or buy a sandwich locally.

2pm Assemble in the churchyard of St Sepulchre's (Snow Hill, EC1A 2DH) for the Martyrs Walk to Tyburn Convent (Marble Arch) led by Joanna Bogle and stopping at various churches along the way.

4pm (approx) Benediction in the chapel and Tea with the nuns at Tyburn. Opportunity to visit the chapel of Relics of the Tyburn Martyrs.

There is no charge for this day but donations will be invited by the organizers of the Martyrs Walk.

There is no need to formally book this event, but it would be helpful if you could let us know if you plan to attend by contacting Nigel Parker by telephone (07930 955692) or email (nigel.parker349@btinternet.com) or by post (17 Salcombe Gardens, London SW4 9RY).
